Brief Report

The Department of Commerce GCEC organized the workshop on “How to become a successful Entrepreneur”, which was aimed to give young students insights on being an entrepreneur and an understanding of how to become a successful entrepreneur in the country. 50 students participated in this workshop.

Key highlights of the event:

- Speaker Sessions: The speaker shared insights and lessons that he learned during his entrepreneurial journey with the students and conducted exercises that helped students get a glimpse of what entrepreneurship is all about.
- Ice-Breaker Exercise: The speaker asked the students to form groups of 4 and conduct impromptu tasks to help them connect with their teammates.
- Entrepreneurship Exercise: The speaker asked all the teams to formulate a business idea, and a product that they can sell, and pitch it to all the students attending the workshop.
