Brief Report

Dr. Prashant Sharma, Associate Professor, IIHMR Jaipur in his keynote address, stressed that the “Entrepreneurial Mindset and Skills” seminar created awareness among students to develop a set of skills and the procedure for logical thinking required for entrepreneurial mindsets.

Entrepreneurship has great potential in contributing not only for job creation, but also in addressing wider social and economic needs, and in promoting more connected and inclusive societies.

Conclusion

By the end of the seminar, participants understood that Entrepreneurship comes in many forms and different roles. It is a tool to develop talent, stimulate innovation and promote social values, but in the current context also a solution for unemployment. 65 students attended the programme.
