Brief Report

The goal of the webinar was to inculcate entrepreneurship skills among the young graduates, post graduates and faculty members. As it is said that the best way to predict the future is to create it and the one who creates it with courage, determination, patience and perseverance is the one called Entrepreneur.

The webinar covered following topics:

- Meaning of entrepreneur
- How can a biological science student think about innovation?
- Scope of innovation and entrepreneurship
- Career opportunity in innovative entrepreneurship?
- How do entrepreneurs protect their ideas?
